Nomenclatural novelties: T. Koizumi & K. Nara

Rhizopogon lucidus T. Koizumi & K. Nara, nom. nov.

IF 903440

Replaced synonym: Rhizopogon nitidus T. Koizumi & K. Nara, Mycoscience 57(4): 290 (2016).

Etymology: smooth, shiny, or polished in Latin; from the surface of the peridium.

Notes: Rhizopogon nitidus was published by T. Koizumi & K. Nara, Mycoscience 57(4): 290 (2016), but it is a nom. illegit., under the ICNafp Shenzhen Code Art. 53.1, as it is a later homonym of the legitimate name Rhizopogon nitidus (Vittad.) Rabenh., Deutschlands Kryptogamenflora 1: 247 (1844). Therefore, the name Rhizopogon lucidus is introduced here as a replacement name.
